

Parent Commitment Form

The Children's Literacy Center, a private non-profit community organization, provides individual assistance to students who are reading below grade level, second semester 1st grade through 6th grade reading level (middle school and high school students welcome). The Peak Reader program does not address children with special education needs.

Enrollment is available at no cost to families.

Our tutors are community volunteers. They undergo an application and background screening process and are trained to use the Peak Reader curriculum. A qualified site coordinator is present during all tutoring sessions.

In order for your child to participate in our program, you must agree to the requirements listed below. Your commitment and support is crucial to your child's success.

This form must be completed and returned to the Children's Literacy Center's office in order to enroll your child in the Peak Reader tutoring program.
